Friends In The Garden — Part 1

By Marie Jones.

One of the wonderful things about gardening is meeting friends who share your love of the same hobby. I am blessed to have several friends that enjoy gardening, and I'd like to introduce three of them to you over the next few weeks.

Today I'll start with Annie, who's had a love for gardening since she was a young girl. Her early interest came by way of her dad, who planted lilacs and grew tomatoes at every house they lived at.

Carrying on that early zeal, Annie grows over 30 varieties of tomatoes each year. The plants are started from seed on her kitchen counter in late winter and later transferred to the greenhouse in April. Finally, as is the case each year, they are planted outside on Mother's Day. For 20 years, she hosted a yearly garden sale that included tomatoes and plants started from seed, items out of her

Longtime Burien Business King Wha Closing Its Doors

Sadly, after 46 years of being a landmark in Burien, the Yu family announced early last month that they are closing their doors on Tuesday, October 4, 2022. In a Facebook statement, they shared: "Our family has been serving the Burien community since 1976. You've celebrated birthdays, graduations, weddings, and more with us. It has been our pleasure to serve you, your children, and your children's children for almost half a century.

King Wha Restaurant has been a mainstay in Burien for so many years, but all good things must come to an end. Our guests have shown us so much love and support throughout the years, and we will be forever grateful. We hope you will come see us one more time in the coming weeks to have one last meal, and to say goodbye."

Kennedy Continues Dominance Of Burien Football

By Martin Barrett.

The Lancer line dominated the first Battle for Burien game. On both sides, they owned the blocks. They opened holes for the run game on offense and gave their QB Payton Faker time to find receivers downfield. On defense, the Lancers forced three turnovers on downs in the first half alone, shutting down the Pirate run game and keeping the fleet Pirate receivers off balance. The Pirates began the game's first series on defense; with a sacking and swarming defensive tackles, it looked like they would be in the Lancer backfield all night. The Lancers lost 20 yards on the initial four plays. The Pirates took the punt and returned the ball 30 yards to the Lancer 40. Lining up on their first offensive series Ronan Rasmussen threw a 20-yard pass to Charles Brown, followed by Rico Jerez-So-sa with a 12-yard scamper, putting the ball inside the Kennedy 20, and it looked like the Pirate offense was going to use its speed to move the ball. But the Lancer line stiffened and forced a four and out on the Pirates. That was the most momentum Highline could muster on offense for the rest of the game. Kennedy immediately began moving the ball in offense and, in two plays, including a 40-yard pass

Kennedy Lancer's 2022 Outlook

By Joe Slye.

The Kennedy Catholic football team makes Score Book Live Washington's Top 50 high school teams in 2022 and the Top 10 4A Preseason Ranking!

Last season, after a third straight 4A NPSL conference title (6-0 record), Kennedy Catholic was ready for a deep run into the playoffs. However, upstart North Creek had other plans. A last play of the game score gave North Creek a 43-42 victory. The Kennedy Catholic playoff run was done after the first game. Twelve seniors from the 2021 team have graduated, and several moved on to college ball, making room for last year's juniors come in. Seventeen players to make amends for the quick 2021 playoff exit. So, what will it take in 2022 for Kennedy Catholic to advance deep into the state playoff fray? First, win the 4A NPSL crown. It would be a "Four Peat" as

JT Jackson: Pirates Receivers Coach

By Martin Barrett.

What is it like to lose the state championship game? JT Jackson knows that feeling. As a senior at O'Dea, he helped the team make it to the year's final contest, only to lose to Bellevue High School. "It is heartbreaking," said Coach Jackson. And yet, for Jackson, the opportunity to play for a storied program changed his life. "I experienced a quality of coaching from men who became mentors and life friends.", said Jackson. Coach Jackson was drawn to coaching because of his love for the game. Basketball was his first sport, and he reconnected with Head Coach Deontae Cooper at a Highline High School basketball game. Cooper immediately saw his heart and talent and invited him onto the staff. Jackson said he had to give up basketball because "I was too aggressive for the game." Football did not have that problem. Jackson loves to teach! "Football is a microcosm of life, teaching kids how to deal with and get back
