Wake Up And Live In Burien! (Part 6)

By Lance Leasure, owner of Town & Country

In my last post I wrote that it was in Yemen where coffee was first cultivated and from there where it began its global migration. Ultimately, our destination is your corner coffee shop or your home coffee station where it's now possible to enjoy coffee from all over the world. Before we get there, we've got a lot to cover.

From Yemen, coffee migrated throughout much of the Arab World in the early 16th century and entered Europe via Turkey and Italy toward the middle of the century. Italian traders are said to have been responsible for the introduction of coffee to Europe. Once there, it spread rapidly and within a few years was brought by an Englishman to Jamestown in the English settlement of Virginia. In the mid 17th century coffee was introduced to New Amsterdam, (later renamed New York by the British,) and spread throughout the region. Despite its popularity, tea remained

Welcome to Burien New Rabbi, Moshe Wolff

By Martin Barrett.

Rabbi Wolff comes to us from Israel via Florida. For the last three years, the Wolffs have assisted Devorah's parents, Rabbi Yisroel and Leah Spalter, with the running of Chabad activities in Weston, Florida. Devorah grew up in Florida, and her lineage is deep with generations of rabbis. The Wolffs hope that in the near future, a permanent Jewish center will be established in Burien. To start on this mission, Rabbi Moshe has begun to reach out to the known Jews in the area, gathering them together to celebrate the Jewish holidays and traditions. His main mission is to connect with every Jewish individual in this area and to support their needs as a Jew. Devorah is a teacher at the Jewish day school in Seattle, where her children also attend. Recently my wife and I were able to spend an afternoon with the Wolff family. It was a great delight! The Jewish tradition of honoring the

Pirates Right The Ship winning against Intelake

By Martin Barrett.

Highline vs. Interlake Sept 15, 2022

One minute and 25 seconds into the game, Running Back Jamaine Matthews scored a touchdown in a 16-yard run. It was Matthews's first of 3 touchdowns and a total of 4 Pirate touchdowns in the first quarter. With a 27-0 lead over the visiting Interlake Saints at the end of the first 12 minutes, it was clear that Coach Deontae Cooper had his team back in stride after the disappointment of the last week's loss against the Kennedy Catholic Lancers match-up in the Battle for Burien.

All told, 7 Pirates scored in the night, including a safety early in the second quarter by nose-tackle Gabriel Tautua. Matthews, Rico Soza, Nat Clay, Charles Brown, and Marquawn McCraney each found the end zone. The Pirates also introduced a new weapon — Field Goal Kicker — Josiah Maginniss, who made 7 out of 8 attempts for the Point After Touchdown. Madinniss also sent the ball deep on Highline kickoffs, allowing the Pirate defense more space to operate. The Pirates established the line of scrimmage as their own from the very beginning. On defense, nose guard Gabriel Tautua made runs up the middle, which proved unfruitful for the Saints. The Pi-

Kennedy Wins 41-13 against Kentwood

By Joe Slye.

The Kennedy Catholic Lancers visited the Kentwood Conquerors on Thursday, September 15; it was the first conference game of the season for both teams. Kennedy Catholic opened the season by splitting non-conference games with a 26-14 loss to Eastside Catholic and a 41-6 win over Highline. Kentwood opened with two non-conference losses to Lakes 50-23 and Peninsula 31-7. Based on the opening games, Kennedy was the favorite in this match-up.

Kennedy Catholic opened strong with 37 points in the first half and cruised to a 44-13 victory over what is usually a very strong Kentwood team. Now with three losses, the Conquerors may have a tough run at a repeat of last year's playoff appearance. The Lancers appear to be getting in stride for a run at what could be a special season. The next three games will give

Anthony Berg: Pirate Quarterback Coach & Offensive Coordinator

By Martin Barrett.

What is it like to lose the state championship game? JT Jackson knows that feeling. As a senior at O'Dea, he helped the team make it to the year's final contest, only to lose to Bellevue High School. "It is heartbreaking," said Coach Jackson. And yet, for Jackson, the opportunity to play for a storied program changed his life. "I experienced a quality of coaching from men who became mentors and life friends.", said Jackson. Coach Jackson was drawn to coaching because of his love for the game. Basketball was his first sport, and he reconnected with Head Coach Deontae Cooper at a Highline High School basketball game. Cooper immediately saw his heart and talent and invited him onto the staff. Jackson said he had to give up basketball because "I was too aggressive for the game." Football did not have that problem. Jackson loves to teach! "Football is a microcosm of
